Entries invited for Oscar Award Consideration.

Like previous years FFI is authorized to select one film for the consideration of Oscar Award in the category "Best Foreign Language Film Award". The selection committee set up for this purpose will view the films entered for selection from 15th September as we have to submit the film to the Academy not later than October 1, 2018. The Producers may send their entries either through you or directly to our office in Mumbai. The following conditions must be adhered to:

1. The films must be commercially released in India between October 1, 2017 and September 30, 2018. The film must run at least for seven consecutive days.
2. The entries must reach the office of the Federation not later than September 8, 2018. As the films released between October 1 and September 30 are eligible, the films which are slated for release on any later date within September 30th are also eligible.
3. Each producer whose film is entered for selection will be required to pay non-refundable Service Charges (amount to be notified later) through D. D. payable to Film Federation of India, at Mumbai.
4. One English Subtitled print/DCP and synopsis of the film must reach the venue between 10th and 14th September' 2018. Prints/DCP received after the stipulated date will not be considered. We are finalising the venue for screening and the same will be intimated shortly.

The members who express their desire to enter the film/s, they can mail us on the following I D - filmfed52@gmail.com or contact the undersigned on Mobile No.9821095649 or our landline number is 022 - 2351 5531. The fax No. is 022 - 2352 2062.

Once we receive the intimation from your members, we shall get back to the concerned person with all requirement details.

You may please circulate the information to your members.

With regards,

Supran Sen
Secretary General
